

JAY JAS GHATHA - PART II

This comic book depicts the barefoot travelling undertaken by Ek Bhavavatari Acharya Samrat Pujya Shri Jaymalji m.s. with his guru Acharya shri Bhudharji m.s. The main purpose of the entourage was to imbibe religious training to not only just Jain followers but also other common people as well. The people who benefitted by the discourses of the great Jain saint Shri Jaymalji m.s. included kings and Maharajas of various states. Impressed by the teachings, they gave up the debaucheries instantly.

The propagation of true religion by the ascetic left a mark in the minds and heart of the people. Acharya Samrat Jaymalji m.s. (who was later conferred the title of 'Charcha Chakravarthy'), won the first debate with the Yati in the historic 'Rata Upashraya' in Pipar City of Rajasthan. This incident is deeply covered in the book. The circumstances leading to the renouncement by leading Jeweller of Delhi, who became the first disciple of Acharya Samrat, is also covered in the book.

The colourful pictures add glitter to the gold, cater to the modern needs and in - depth narration.
